SUPERVISOR DIMITRIJEVIC REACHES MILESTONE, CLOSES IN ON 30TH TOWN HALL MEETING

Milwaukee, WI – Yesterday, Milwaukee County Supervisor Marina Dimitrijevic held her 29th meeting with residents of her district, which includes Bay View and Milwaukee's near South Side.

"It's a great opportunity for information exchange. I believe in active, accessible representation for the constituents I serve," Supervisor Dimitrijevic said.

Supervisor Dimitrijevic has held 29 town hall meetings, budget listening sessions and issue-oriented public meetings since taking office in 2004.

"At each of these meetings, my constituents bring great questions to the table. Often, I utilize their input in drafting County Board resolutions and budget amendments," Dimitrijevic added. "I thank the residents in my district for taking an active role in our community and participating in these meetings. I intend to keep this proactive approach and continue down the path of providing open forums for my neighbors."

Supervisor Dimitrijevic's 30th meeting with constituents is scheduled for April 11th.
